DESCRIPTION:

OMHSAS, in collaboration with Temple University Harrisburg, will be hosting a two day educational and networking event on April 29th and April 30th to support counties, providers, and families involved in crisis intervention services.

This children, youth, and young adult focused event will include state updates; including regulatory updates and presentations from other child serving state agencies. Professionals will provide clinical best practice approaches for working effectively with children, youth, young adults and families in crisis. A detailed agenda will be released prior to the event. CEUs will be available for clinical sessions.

Discount hotel accommodations will be available on a first come first serve basis.
