

FAMILY FORWARD

Confused and overwhelmed while trying to navigate child and family serving systems? Need help understanding what it all means? If you are involved in any of the following systems don't hesitate to reach out for support.

- ♦ Children's Behavioral Health
- ♦ Mental Health
- ♦ Intellectual and Developmental Disability
- ♦ Juvenile Probation (JPO)
- ♦ Children and Youth Services (CYS)
- ♦ Education (IEP/504)
- ♦ Drug and Alcohol (D&A)
- ♦ Medically Fragile

Family Forward is a group of Family Peer Support Specialists who have life experience with these systems and are available to help guide and empower you on your journey while involved.

We are available on the 3rd floor of the Meadville Public Library, 848 N. Main St. in Meadville on the 2nd Friday of the month from 9am-11am and on the 4th Thursday of the month from 5pm-7pm.

If you are unable to attend and/or things are time sensitive or if you would like us to speak to your group we can be reached at (814) 807-1762.

(This is a message line please allow 24-48 hours for a response)

"There is nothing so moving, not even acts of love or hate, as the discovery that one is not alone." ~Robert Ardrey
