

A Youth Transition Webinar with the Brill Family

Join Kathy & Alexa Brill, fierce self-advocates and professionals, as they share their experiences of transitioning into adulthood. Youth, families, and caregivers are invited to attend to learn more and to ask questions that may provide helpful resources.

March 3, 2026

12:00 – 1:00 p.m.

About the Brills

Alexa Brill earned her BA from Edinboro University in 2013 and has worked at The Arc of Pennsylvania since 2014. She serves as President of Self Advocates United As 1 (SAU1) and participates in Temple University's Assistive Technology Champions Program. Her mother, Kathy Brill, holds an MA from George Washington University and is a nationally recognized disability advocate and co-founder of Parent to Parent USA.

Register for the Session

Questions: training@pealcenter.org

Where: The session takes place via Zoom.

Register: www.tfaforms.com/5209597

