A Summit for Churches

The Mental Health Church Summit is a one-day educational event created to equip church leadership with practical insight, professional resources, and compassionate understanding surrounding the intersection of faith and mental health.

Throughout the day expert international speakers and others from across Mercer County will share professional perspectives, community resources, and practical tools that can help churches respond wisely and compassionately when individuals and families are facing mental health challenges.

Personal testimonies will also help bring deeper understanding and empathy to these important conversations.

Featured Speakers

- Joe Padilla – Co-Founder, Mental Health Grace Alliance (Keynote Speaker)
- John Libonati – Mercer County Coroner
- Ben Zimmer – Recovery Centers
- AWARE – Domestic Violence Advocacy
