What is Independent Monitoring for Quality (IM4Q)?

Explore how a simple conversation with IM4Q can make a difference for your family and families across PA.

- What is IM4Q? It is the opportunity Individuals and Families have to give direct feedback on their services received from PA's Office of Developmental Programs.
- IM4Q team members strive to have friendly conversations about your everyday life with a focus on satisfaction, dignity and rights, choice and control, relationships, and inclusion.
